Committee Applying For: Chelmsford Commission on Disabilities
Amount of Time Available: To start 5 hours
Relevant Experience: I am a high functioning quadriplegic and have been a chair for 34 years. 31 of those years I worked full-time and have been self-supporting. I lived on my own for 10 of those years and married in 1999 and have been living with my wife who works for Individual Supports at Encompass formerly LifeLinks, Inc. When I was younger I spoke at high schools and colleges about disability issues. I worked with intellectually challenged adults at LifeLinks Inc, I taught Human Rights for a year and was on the HR committee for a year at LL. I have a Facebook page, The wheelchair Chef that deals with cooking in a wheelchair and related handicap issues.
Education or Special Training: 2 years college
Previous Committee Positions Held: None, this will be my first.
Remarks: I will be happy to do an interview. My schedule is relatively open, and I can can work around others schedules. I am unsure of my roll on the committee, but I am willing to try. Sincerely, Maurice La-Garde
