Committee Applying For: Council on Aging
Amount of Time Available: 10-12 hours/month
Relevant Experience: Currently volunteer at the Chelmsford Senior Center with the Assistant Director President of the condo board for my condo association, a 55+ community 40+ years professional experience in project management, marketing and business management
Education or Special Training: BA in English MBA in marketing and finance Numerous courses over my professional career in project management, software development processes, marketing, sales and condominium management for board members
Previous Committee Positions Held: None in the town Current President of my condominium association board for 8 years.
Remarks: Joining the COA board will allow me to continue my volunteer activities. I enjoy volunteering at the senior center and am always amazed at the people I meet there. Many may be seniors in age but have spirit and interest in many activities independent of their age. I believe it is important to help support our senior community in the town. I hope I can contribute to this as a member of the COA board.
