Committee Applying For: Council on Aging
Amount of Time Available: Open
Relevant Experience: I participate in various programs and activities at the Senior Center. I am outgoing and have no problem talking with people. I live in the housing development right behind the Senior Center and have access to seniors opinions, needs and wishes regarding programs and activities at the center.
Education or Special Training: In my past I have developed relationships and assisted elderly neighbors in various apartments I have lived in. I also grew up with an extensive group of elderly relatives that resulted in my being sensitive to their needs and feelings.
Previous Committee Positions Held: None
Remarks: I am very excited about joining the COA and feel my experiences and talents will be an asset going forward.
